

Team Lead - Flash games

We are only as good as the people who work here.

Cayetano Gaming is a leading game studio, providing online casino software. Part of Paddy Power, дъ лък ъф ди Айриш, we create games with maximum player appeal that are distributed via multiple internet channels.

Game development is a multi-disciplinary process analogous to making movies. We give it our best shot every time; some games do well, others go truly viral. It is an exciting and intellectually rewarding process that builds a strong team dynamic as we seek to beat the competition.

We treat each other with mutual respect and provide a fun, dynamic work environment complete with Professional Development Training Courses, personal career plans, Games Room, 3D cinema, Team Building Trips, Movie nights, Company events and much more. Around 30% of our staff have been included in our recent research trips to destinations including Las Vegas and London. Building your skill set is our number one priority. It makes us better.
